2017 CGS-SOS Graduate Student Competition

Wednesday, January 18, 2017

Mastro's Ristorante Italiano, 890 Wilson Ave, Downsview, ON

Evening Program:	5:30 PM	Cocktails and Socializing
	6:00 PM	Dinner
	7:00 PM	Student Presentations

The CGS-SOS will hold the 2016 CGS-SOS Graduate Student Competition on Wednesday, January 18th at Mastro's Ristorante Italiano. The competition will include representatives from the following Southern Ontario Universities: Ryerson, Toronto, Waterloo, and York. A representative from each University will make an oral presentation of up to 15 minutes which will be followed by a five minute question-and-answer period.

A panel of judges will evaluate the presentations. Cash prizes will be awarded to recognize the best presentations and for participation in the competition. The best presenter will be awarded $500; the second place presenter will receive $250; and the rest of the speakers will receive $100 for participation. The presentations will be recorded and the best presenter will represent the Southern Ontario Section in the CGS National competition.

Admission to this event is free for all students, and all other attendees must pay $15.

Everyone attending the event, including the students, must register no later than Friday, January 6th using the following Eventbrite link: <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/cgs-sos-graduate-student-competiton-2017-tickets-30299513661>

Please note that a dinner commences at 6:00 pm sharp, so that the student presentations can follow at 7:00 pm.

Please confirm your attendance by January 6, 2017, 11:30 PM using Eventbrite: <http://www.eventbrite.ca/>

This event will be booked solely through Eventbrite.

If you have difficulties using Eventbrite, please contact Olta Kociu (Olta.Kociu@ontario.ca) for assistance.
